

KOKO'S GENEROUS BELONGING WRISTBANDS

Practice this chant to help you remember to be generous with your belongings:

USE THE THINGS I HAVE TO SHARE — I CAN DO THIS ANYWHERE!

Next, create these fun wristbands with your family. You can all wear them to remind yourselves to be generous with your belongings. Make some for friends too!

MATERIALS NEEDED:

- Purple and green construction paper.
- Scissors.
- Markers/pens.
- Glue/staplers.

DIRECTIONS

1. Cut strips of purple and green construction paper wide enough to fit around your wrists.
2. Using markers or pens, write: USE THE THINGS I HAVE TO SHARE — I CAN DO THIS ANYWHERE!
3. Distribute the wristbands to your family and friends. Encourage everyone to wear their wristbands as a reminder to be generous with their belongings.

USE THE THINGS I HAVE TO SHARE — I CAN DO THIS ANYWHERE!

USE THE THINGS I HAVE TO SHARE — I CAN DO THIS ANYWHERE!