

Betta Tugive's Big-Hearted Rhyme-Along

THE SNEAKY SNATCHER

Directions:

Complete the following rhymes with the word banks below, or come up with your own sneak-free rhymes.

In the land of the givers where trust is the best, join our fun backyard friends. _____.

They are happy and blessed

Load your wagon. Go west

You can wear a striped vest

They have learned that the truth is the best way to go, showing care for each friend and each pal. _____

Tally ho!

Don't you know?

Throw some snow!

Say, do you snatch and sneak? Do you tell little lies? Do you take what's not yours? _____

Do you see all those flies?

Bend your knees. Blink your eyes.

You can change. Dry your eyes.

Betta Tugive's Big-Hearted Rhyme-Along

THE SNEAKY SNATCHER _____

You can have a do-over, undo what you've done. Just put everything back _____!

and say, "Sorry." You've won and take off at a run

and then make up a pun

All your sneaking and snatching's behind you, it's true! You will be a great pal. _____!

You know just what to do

Take a trip to Peru

Yippee-yay and yahoo

